

W. Bartley Hildreth
Highlighted Excellence in State and Local Fiscal Policy

| SPECIALITIES | SELECTED PUBLICATIONS | SIGNIFICANT SERVICE AND PROFESSIONAL RECOGNITIONS |
|-------------------------------|---|---|
| Taxation | Handbook on Taxation (1999, co-editor) | Chair, (Kansas) Governor's Tax Review Committee (1998); and, Member, and tax study report editor, of Governor's Tax Equity Task Force (1995) |
| | National Tax Journal articles (2024 and 2005, co-author), and 5 NTA Proceedings | National Tax Association: Executive Director (One day per week, 2015-2016), board member (2001-2004) |
| Budgeting | Budgeting: Politics and Power, Second Edition (2013, Oxford University Press, co-author) | Wildavsky Award for lifetime scholarly accomplishments (2008, Association for Budgeting and Financial Management [ABFM]) |
| | Public Budgeting Laboratory (4-book set); GFOA 100th Anniversary article (2006), Government Finance Review ; chapter, Oxford Handbook on State and Local Government Finance (2012, co-author) | Board member, National Advisory Council on State and Local Budgeting (1996-1998) that published Recommended Budget Practices: A Framework (1998) |
| Municipal Securities | Editor-in-Chief, Municipal Finance Journal (1989-2023) | Board member, Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board (2012-2015); Industry Award, National Federation of Municipal Analysts (2017) |
| | 5 articles in Public Budgeting & Finance , including two award winning articles (2017 and 2012), most recently: "Impact of Bankruptcy Eligibility Requirements and Statutory Liens on Borrowing Costs" (2017, co-author) | Securities and Exchange Commission [SEC]: invited presentation by SEC chair (2010), and panel session for the archive at SEC Historical Society (2015); 2017 Burkhead Award for best article (co-author) in Public Budgeting & Finance |
| | Kansas State Debt Affordability Report (first one for the state, 2005) | Board member, Kansas Development Finance Authority (1997-2003, gubernatorial appointment with State Senate confirmation twice) |
| Financial Management | "Government-wide Financial Statements and Credit Risk," in Public Budgeting & Finance (2012, co-author) | Burkhead Award for best article in Public Budgeting & Finance (2012, co-author) |
| | Research Handbook on Public Financial Management (2023, co-editor) | Founding ABFM representative, Governmental Accounting Standards Advisory Council (2002-2003) |
| Chief Financial Officer | Management Policies in Local Government Finance (2013, ICMA, co-editor) | Founding member, Council on Certification, Government Finance Officers Association [GFOA] (1996-1999) |
| | Finance managers' survey results in Public Administration Review (2005), Public Budgeting & Finance (2010), Journal of Public Budgeting, Accounting and Financial Management (2012) | Director of Finance, City of Akron, Ohio (1984-1985, while on academic leave of absence) - issued first GFOA-awarded Comprehensive Annual Financial Report and the Distinguished Budget; Dean, Andrew Young School of Policy Studies, Georgia State University (2009-2010) |
| Public Administration | Handbook of Public Administration (4th Edition, 2021) | Elected Fellow, National Academy of Public Administration (2012) |
| | Articles: Public Administration Review , Public Integrity , and others | Posner Lifetime Pracademic Award (2023, ABFM); Pugliese Award (1995, Southeastern Conference for Public Administration) |
| Comparative Capital Financing | Articles: Canadian Foreign Policy (2006) and Policy Options/Politiques (2005) | First Fulbright Scholar Award placement, and Visiting Research Chair in Public Policy, at McGill University in Montreal (2005) |
| | Lectures at Fudan University and Central University of Finance and Economics (2007), China | Only Academic Member, delegation to China for Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars (2002) on environmental financing |
| State Economic Development | Articles and publications on Kansas finances and infrastructure (1994-2009), and on state electric industry deregulation (1997-2006) | One of four Kansas Regents Professors, and the only one in a business/social science field, at the three Regents universities, each with responsibility for promoting the state's economic development (with job interview held by Regents as well as the university), and director of Kansas Public Finance Center (1994-2009) |